

I am a contemporary textile artist and designer most identifiable by my statement thread drawings; specialising in creating bespoke tapestry like wall coverings and large scale site specific installations, for public interiors, hospitality and galleries, event art, illustration, and smaller bespoke pieces. Establishing my practice in 2009; I have developed a far reaching freelance career working with many high profile clients both nationally and internationally, whilst still creating many private commissions and maintaining a personal creative practice.

EDUCATION

2005-2008	First Class BA Hons Contemporary Textiles	Coleg Sir Gar, Wales
2004-2005	FETAC Level 2 Certificate - Art, Craft & Design	Colaiste Stiofain Naofa, Cork

CLIENTS / COMMISSIONS / COLLABORATIONS

I have a wealth of experience in creating dominant awe inspiring art at brand events, producing statement window displays as well as installing live at corporate locations & environments. Sitting on the borders of art, craft and design; my distinctive and distinguished way of working has garnered attention from major industry big hitters; from weaving a tapestry-like portrait of Marvel's Black Widow for Disney to a 32sq m live performance art piece that grows out of the strings of a violin for Hamburg Philharmonic Orchestra; from visual merchandising for Adidas and Mercedes Benz to bespoke branding and logo work for Sony, Ellesse and Instagram; from fabric print design for Liberty of London to live event art for Toshiba. From custom logo work for The New York Times to a live artwork at Continental at Frankfurt Motor Show. Multiple book cover illustrations and contemporary fashion collaborations to designing and fabricating nationwide window displays for luxury french fashion brand Hermes.
